NOTES

Iran-Iraq: [An Iranian ship flying the Iranian flag is scheduled to sail down the disputed Shatt al-Arab River within the next three or four days as a test of the Iraqi threat to search such vessels. The ship will have a naval escort. The Iranian Navy has orders not to start an incident, but the Iranians are determined to resist if an attempt is made to search the ship. The Iraqis reportedly have warned that they will remove any Iranian military personnel from the ship.]
